

Memoirs of the Caring Community Tell us your story!

Do you have a story about caring for a friend, family member or loved one who faced a life-limiting illness? Perhaps you have a story about your own hospice experience you would like to share.

Memoirs of the Caring Community is just the spot.

Caring Hospice is gathering submissions to include in its first compilation of short stories and poems about and by community members entitled Memoirs of the Caring Community.

We are asking members of our community to submit stories about their varied experiences caring for someone with a life-limiting illness. Every story is as unique as the individuals and families involved in caring.

- Stories or poems should be limited to 2,000 words or less
- Submit via fax, mail or e-mail your poetry, stories and digital photos
- All stories become the property of Caring Hospice and will be eligible for inclusion in current or future editions of Memoirs of the Caring Community
- Minor revisions may be necessary. Please include contact information to discuss any possible changes that may enhance readability
- Writers of stories included in Memoirs of the Caring Community will receive a copy of the publication
- Please submit stories by September 2nd
